Pittsburgh Diaper Derby Goes Wild at the Pittsburgh Zoo

On your mark, get set, ...crawl! The Pittsburgh Diaper Derby is about babies "racing" to help babies. Children up to age 5 will walk, toddle or crawl their way to the finish line while raising funds for needy families in Pittsburgh. The baby sized "races" will take place at the Pittsburgh Zoo and PPG Aquarium. All contestants must raise a minimum of $160 that directly supports programming for single moms, dads, and needy families. Over 150 babies and pre-schoolers will compete for great prizes and give-aways. Click here to find out about forming a team at your Church or School.

Past advertisers have included Pittsburgh Christian Schools, S&T Bank, Lamar Advertising, Peace Love and Little Donuts, Babies R Us, H&R Block, and others. Click here to find out about advertising opportunities. All proceeds go directly to programs benefitting needy moms through the Women's Choice Network's Life Support Programs. Many of the moms involved in these programs will have contestants entered in the Pittsburgh Diaper Derby as a way to give back to the community.
